OPINION

ORDER REGARDING DECISIONS OF SPECIAL MASTER

CONCERNING LONDON DEPOSITIONS

The purpose of this order is to record, for filing with the Court and on Verilaw, the decisions made by the Special Master in telephone conferences with plaintiffs' counsel and defendants' counsel regarding the recent series of depositions in London, England:

1. On June 21, 2002 the Special Master ruled that defendants could not instruct their witnesses not to answer, on the grounds of relevance of the subject matter, questions regarding the alleged conspiracy in the Vitamins Anti-Trust litigation.

2. On June 21, 2002, the Special Master ruled that plaintiffs' counsel were bound by the time limitations which had been previously agreed upon for the taking of the depositions of witnesses in London, unless the parties stipulate to a different division of time.

3. On July 4, 2002, the Special Master ruled that the deposition of Mr. Rose would be taken in London on July 10, 2002. The parties are entitled to only one deposition of Mr. Rose, and the notice of his deposition for August 30, 2002 was quashed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

[*8] Dated: July 10, 2002

Hon. Charles Legge (Ret.)

Special Master
